

ORIGINALLY APPROVED OCTOBER 27, 2012 BY PWNC IN STATED MEETING

Proposed Revision of POLICY re TRANSITIONAL PASTOR (Minister of Word and Sacrament/TEACHING ELDER) TO INSTALLED PASTOR

Presbytery of Western North Carolina

APPROVED AT APRIL 30, 2019 MEETING OF PWNC

Preamble

The function of this policy is to provide procedural guidance for installing a Transitional Pastor in lieu of a Pastor, Co-Pastor, or Associate Pastor. Relevant Book of Order (2017-2019) guidance for this policy is:

b. Temporary Pastoral Relationships

Temporary pastoral relationships are approved by the presbytery and do not carry a formal call or installation. When a congregation does not have a pastor, or while the pastor is unable to perform her or his duties, the session, with the approval of presbytery, may obtain the services of a minister of Word and Sacrament, candidate, or ruling elder in a temporary pastoral relationship. No formal call shall be issued and no formal installation shall take place.

Titles and terms of service for temporary relationships shall be determined by the presbytery. A person serving in a temporary pastoral relationship is invited for a specified period not to exceed twelve months in length, which is renewable with the approval of the presbytery. A minister of Word and Sacrament employed in a temporary pastoral relationship is ordinarily not eligible to serve as the next installed pastor, co-pastor, or associate pastor.

c. Exceptions

A presbytery may determine that its mission strategy permits a minister of Word and Sacrament currently called as an Associate Pastor to be eligible to serve as the next installed pastor or co-pastor, or a minister of the Word and Sacrament employed in a temporary pastoral relationship to be eligible to serve as the next installed pastor, co-pastor, or associate pastor. Presbyteries that permit this eligibility shall establish such relationships only by a three-fourths vote of the members of presbytery present and voting. G-2.0504b-c

MISSION OF THE PRESBYTERY OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA

SEE, We Are The Body Of Christ

We Covenant to...

Strengthen Congregations

Equip Disciples

Engage in Mission

Guiding Principles to achieve the mission of our Presbytery:

Coordinate, guide, encourage, support, and resource the work of the congregations for the most effective witness to the broader community and partner with a particular congregation in carrying out its Mission in accordance with the Book of Order (2017-2019).

Oversee the transition during a time of pastoral change in the life of the congregation by serving as pastor, counselor, and advisor to teaching elders and congregations.

Based on these Presbytery guiding principles the Presbytery will work in partnership with congregations to ensure that procedures are followed which will provide appropriate pastoral relationships for a particular church at a particular time.

I. Procedure at the beginning of a pastoral vacancy:

- A. Congregations which normally have an installed Pastor, Co-Pastor or Associate Pastor are strongly encouraged to be led by a trained transitional pastor who intends to devote him/herself to the interim task through the interim period between installed pastors.
 - 1. The work of such a transitional pastor is important to any congregation which has experienced a pastoral vacancy, regardless of the cause, as all such vacancies generate some level of grief and anxiety. Moreover, the work of a transitional pastor becomes increasingly valuable where there has been a long-term pastorate or where the conclusion of the prior pastorate has been sudden and/or accompanied by conflict.
 - 2. Interim ministry requires particular personal skills and specialized training which equip the transitional pastor to lead the congregation through the specific tasks of the interim period as well as provide for the normal pastoral functions that are a part of any pastoral ministry. If the transitional pastor has not previously received specific interim training, he or she must do so within six months after beginning this pastorate or otherwise satisfy the Presbytery of his/her fitness for the role. Such transitional pastors are not merely place-holders or caretakers, but rather are agents of stability and change and preparation for the church's future under new pastoral leadership.
 - 3. To be effective and to accomplish the tasks that should be completed during a pastoral transition, a transitional pastor must be objective and maintain his/her independence from influences that would compromise his/her judgments and autonomy, including but not limited to the possibility and perceived benefits of the interim relationship being converted to an installed pastoral position. Therefore, it is important that the person serving as a transitional pastor or a transitional associate pastor ordinarily is not eligible to be called to as the next installed pastor, co-pastor, or associate pastor in that congregation.
- B. In compliance with the Book of Order (2017-2019) the Presbytery affirms that a Minister of Word and Sacrament/Teaching Elder employed in a temporary pastoral relationship is ordinarily not eligible to serve as the next installed Pastor, Co-Pastor, or Associate Pastor. Only when the Presbytery determines such action is appropriate will the Presbytery consider allowing a transitional pastor to become the next installed pastor.

II. Procedure for ordinary replacement of Pastor, Co-Pastor, or Associate Pastor

A. Interim Period

To ensure that the interim period will be effective and the interim tasks will be accomplished the Committee on Ministry (COM) will partner with the Session and congregation from the time the departing pastor announces his/her intention to end his/her pastorate. A member of the COM will speak to the entire congregation about the nature of the transition time. A COM member will counsel with the Session about the options for ministry during the vacancy period and will be a resource during their journey, whatever decision is made.

B. Transitional Pastor Search Committee

If there is a Session search committee for a transitional pastor they will consult with the COM with regard to possible candidates. After a candidate is chosen by the search committee the COM will meet with the candidate to assess his/her fit with the needs of the congregation. After the approval of the COM, the Presbytery will approve the candidate being accepted into the Presbytery as a transitional pastor for the congregation.

C. COM Relationship with Transition Pastor

The COM will build a relationship with the transitional pastor and stay apprised of the status of the congregation through regular meetings with him/her and also through written reports from the transitional pastor.

D. Installed Pastor Nominating Committee

The COM will meet with the Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC) as they begin their work to discuss the Presbytery's guidance for the calling of a new pastor and to build relationships with the committee members. The COM will meet with the PNC at others times at the request of the committee or to assess their progress.

III. Procedure for allowing an "exception"

- A. The congregation will have completed several transition steps: (1) It will have done a mission study. (2) The transitional pastor and the PNC each will have been in close contact with the COM to keep Presbytery informed of the situation at the particular church. (3) The skills and interests of the transitional pastor will match the skills and interests indicated by the PNC in the relevant part of the Ministry Information Form (MIF).
- B. The Session and the Presbytery will have determined that there are conditions which justify an exception. Therefore, Presbytery can conclude that its mission strategy will be served by permitting the transitional pastor to be called as the installed pastor. Some examples of such circumstances are a congregation recovering from the untimely death of a pastor, an unfortunate situation such as pastoral sexual harassment, an out of control environmental issue such as a changing neighborhood or declining population, a split in the church involving some members leaving to join with another denomination, a general attitude of contentiousness, and/or a history of conflict.
- C. When a Minister of Word and Sacrament/Teaching Elder employed in a transitional relationship becomes an installed Pastor, Co-Pastor or Associate Pastor it shall be for a designated term of two years. The rationale for this approach is that the two-year period will give the Session, the congregation, the teaching elder and the Presbytery an appropriate time frame to optimize resolution of issues and to assess the match of pastor to congregation and to the achievement of Presbytery and congregation mission strategies.

IV. Options for concluding a designated term.

As the end of the designated term approaches:

- A. The pastor with a designated term can be installed for an indefinite term as pastor, co-pastor, or associate pastor. In this case, with the approval of Presbytery a congregational meeting shall be held to call the pastor for an indefinite term which, if favorable, will be followed by an installation by Presbytery.
- B. The designated period shall be extended by one or two years if recommended by the congregation and Presbytery
- C. The pastoral relationship can be terminated by the pastor's resignation, the non-renewal of the call by the congregation, or by action of the Presbytery.
