Experience the prayer, poetry, folklore, and spirituality of the Celtic Christians of old – and how their down-to-earth, lyrical, and hope-filled wisdom still speaks to us today.

If you attended last year's retreat, you can expect to build on what you learned with more time devoted toward putting these spiritual disciplines into practice.

Last year's event is in no way a prerequisite for this year's, however; first-time attendees are more than welcomed!

For all who attend, our weekend together will explore ways for us to celebrate Celtic wisdom and weave it into our lives here in the 21st century. We will pray together, enjoy the poetry and stories of the Celtic saints, and seek the still, small voice of God in the natural beauty of Bonclarken.

Please join us!

Celtic Spirituality II

We're pleased to welcome back Carl McColman as our retreat leader. Carl comes to us from Clarkston, Georgia (near Atlanta), where he conducts full-time lay ministry as a Christian blogger, speaker, and educator. He is an adjunct instructor with the Columbia Theological Seminary (CTS) Center for Lifelong Learning and has led a number of CTS Spirituality programs at the seminary as well as at Montreat. Carl is a Lay Associate of the Trappist monastery in Georgia and is the author of several books, including An Invitation to Celtic Wisdom, Answering the Contemplative Call, and Befriending Silence.

Linda Abel, Co-Pastor of Hayesville Presbyterian Church, will again assist in facilitating the retreat. She has her Certificate in Spiritual Formation from CTS and has served as a facilitator in the program for the past sixteen years. She is a Benedictine Oblate and participates in retreats at the Monastery of the Holy Spirit in Conyers, Georgia, on a regular basis.
