

Position: Director of Youth and Children's Ministry

Objective: To provide a warm welcome and Christian faith formation for children, youth and families

Qualifications:

- Christian faith and the ability to share God's love with children and youth
- Education and/or experience (paid or volunteer) in teaching/working with children and youth
- Understanding of teaching models in Christian education and of current curriculum and program materials
- Is creative, flexible and organized; works collegially with other church staff
- Possesses good communication skills in working with children, parents and volunteers
- Must have current Covid vaccination status

Responsibilities:

- Plan, implement and supervise weekly Sunday School class for children and youth, currently meeting for an abbreviated time period due to Covid, (10:30 – 10:55).
- We are small but growing. Currently we have a total of five in upper elementary/middle school, three pre-K, and four one year olds, all actively participating)
- Provide organizational support for nursery care during the worship hour (11:00 – 11:30 currently) see note below*
- Coordinate church volunteers to lead and or/assist in planned class and programs
- Publicize programs in church newsletter and website
- Provide "Time with Children" message in worship two times per month
- Adhere to the church's Child Safety Policy
- Meet with the Pastor and Christian Education Committee regularly

Supervised by: The pastor

Hours: Sunday mornings and flexible planning time

Compensation: $140.00 per week, assuming 7 hours per week ($20 per hour) ($7280 annually)

There is potential to expand the position in the future

Questions or to apply: contact the pastor: jdewater@fpcmountholly.com