

Before the CPM can approve you as ready to receive a call, you must be able to positively affirm the ordination vows and state you can comply with the qualifications for ordination.

My signature below indicates that I understand the vows of ordination and the gifts and qualifications for ordained office in the Presbyterian Church (USA) and I am willing and able to comply with the requirements. I reaffirm our covenant relationship as members of Christ's body and will continue to share any questions and concerns regarding my call with my session, pastor and the committee.
