Policy for use of Presbytery Hurricane Helene Relief Funds: Amended January 14th, 2026

Overview

- Purpose: We want to help churches in our presbytery who were damaged by Helene to repair their property; we want to help churches provide direct relief to their communities; and we want to provide housing and materials to work teams who come to our area.
- The fund is to be used for support of direct relief efforts as detailed hereafter in this policy
- The fund is not for salary and expenses of PWNC's Disaster Recovery Coordinator.

Categories and Process

- Churches that have incurred damage attributable to Hurricane Helene may submit requests for funding, as follows:
 - Provide receipts for repairs already made that will not be funded by FEMA, Insurance, or other parties.
 - Provide bids received for repairs to be made (at least two bids where possible) that will not be funded by FEMA, Insurance, or other parties.
 - Priority is given to this category of need. Churches may request funds for this kind of assistance up to three times each year.
 - Session shall approve the requests of their churches before they are submitted.
 - The maximum amount that can be awarded to a church in one request is $10,000.00
 - A church can submit up to 3 requests for funding in a year, one before each of the following deadlines: March 31, July 31, and October 31.
 - A church shall indicate the date by which it expects to have distributed the funds covered by its request. Within 90 days after that date, the church shall report to the Disaster Recovery Coordinator how the funds were distributed.
 - Except under conditions of exceptional need, priority will be afforded to churches that have not already submitted multiple requests.
- Churches may submit requests for funding to provide direct relief for members and neighbors who have been severely impacted by Hurricane Helene. When funding is requested for a partner organization, the request shall still be submitted from the church and a new or existing partnership should exist between church and organization.
 - Session shall approve the requests of their churches before they are submitted.

Coordinating Ministry

Attachment 2

- The maximum amount that can be awarded to a church for direct relief of members and neighbors or to existing and effective partners in one request is $10,000.00.
 - A church can submit up to 3 requests for funding in a year, one before each of the following deadlines: March 31, July 31, and October 31.
 - A church shall indicate the date by which it expects to have distributed the funds covered by its request. Within 90 days after that date, the church shall report to the Disaster Recovery Coordinator how the funds were distributed.
- PWNC's costs of providing housing and resources for work teams that provide direct relief to churches and communities affected by Hurricane Helene.
 - Provide receipts for such costs that are not otherwise funded from other sources.
 - The maximum amount that can be awarded to a church for housing costs for volunteers is $2,500.00.
 - A church can submit up to 3 requests for funding in a year, one before each of the following deadlines: March 31, July 31, and October 31
 - Cost of materials for work teams will be coordinated between the PWNC Disaster Recovery Team and the established work partners. After case-managed cost-estimates are provided by the work partners, and only as a cost-share, the PWNC DRT will consider requests up to $10,000 per property for a total of no more than $100,000 per year, and will approve and distribute on an as needed frequency.

Plan for disbursement of funds in year two:

- Priority in order indicated above in categories and process.
- 20% of available funds to Churches that have incurred damage.
- 35% of available funds to Churches to provide relief for members and neighbors who have been severely impacted by Hurricane Helene.
- 10% of available funds to costs to provide housing for work teams.
- 35% of available funds to costs to provide materials for work teams
- This policy will be reviewed after each application deadline and may be changed as needs evolve and new needs emerge.

Procedure

1. Applicants will submit requests for funding to the Disaster Recovery Coordinator. The Coordinator may request such additional information as the Coordinator thinks is necessary for the Disaster Recovery Team to make an informed decision.
2. The Disaster Recovery Team may create such forms as it believes will help it consider requests for funding.

Coordinating Ministry

3. The Disaster Recovery Team shall decide all requests for relief as soon as possible. Whenever feasible, the team will make a decision within 30 days of the application deadlines.
4. If available funds are insufficient to fund completely all approved requests, the Disaster Recovery Team will divide the funds as equitably as possible giving priority to churches who have submitted fewer requests. If additional funds become available, the Disaster Recovery Team can distribute them among approved requests.
5. As the Disaster Recovery Team gains experience with the process of distributing relief funds, it shall recommend to the Coordinating Ministry Team any changes to these procedures it believes will improve the process.

Communication regarding this policy

- Once approved by Coordinating Ministry on January 14, 2026, the amended policy will be communicated to all churches of PWNC.
- A form to assist churches request funding will be available and will be communicated shortly thereafter.
- Requests will be responded to as soon as possible after application deadlines.
- The Presbytery will welcome contributions to continue to grow the PWNC Hurricane Helene Relief fund and provide financial support for a minimum of 2 years. Communications about the size of the fund, the amount available to disburse and the review process will be shared widely and frequently.

Anne HK Apple - Call to Ministry and Pastoral Experience

Formation and Early Faith

As the youngest child and only daughter of lifelong educators Do and Bob Kaiser, my faith journey began with baptism at Pleasant Hills Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. When our family moved to Memphis in the late 1960s for my father's faculty position at Memphis State University, we became founding members of Balmoral Presbyterian Church under Reverend Vernon Hunter's pastoral leadership. This new church development proved formative through its courageous witness in Civil Rights work on Memphis streets and in member homes and with its innovative Christian education program led by Rosemary Banta and Fran Addicott, who encouraged exploration of scripture and faith practices across multiple learning styles.

Professional Life and Growing Church Involvement

After graduating from Rhodes College, where I met my husband Jim Apple, I began my career as a product manager for the Ilizarov trauma product at Richards Medical Company. Jim's career took us from Marietta, Georgia, where I served with the choir and Club 360 afterschool ministry at First Presbyterian Church, to Mobile, Alabama. There we joined Spring Hill Presbyterian Church—reuniting with Reverend Hunter—and became deeply engaged in congregational life and ministry as a deacon.

The Call to Pastoral Ministry

When Vernon retired, interim pastor Frank Beall encouraged me to attend a "Come See Columbia" seminary weekend. While I had always known I would serve Christ in the church, I had not imagined pastoral ministry as a possible pathway. That weekend experience crystallized a clear call to ministry of Word and Sacrament. With our two young children, Betsy and James (ages 5 and 3), and through prayerful discernment as a family, I attended Columbia Theological Seminary while Jim maintained his work in Mobile. I completed summer internships at Government Street Presbyterian Church.

Pastoral Ministry Experience

Following graduation, I began PhD studies in Instructional Design and Educational Counseling at the University of South Alabama while pastoring Grace Presbyterian Church, a small country congregation in Mobile. This congregation taught me how to be a pastor. During this season, we welcomed our third child, Abigail. Seeking to be closer to family, we returned to Memphis for Jim's work. Jim joined Idlewild Presbyterian Church, where I served in progressively responsible roles over many years: Parish Associate, Interim Associate Pastor, Associate Pastor, Executive Associate Pastor, and Acting Head of Staff following Senior Pastor Steve Montgomery's retirement, through the COVID-19 pandemic. This congregation shaped my pastoral identity and ministry philosophy through seasons of growth, adaptive change, challenges, and profound loss. After David Powers was called as Head of Staff at Idlewild, I left Idlewild and took a discernment year and served as Interim Pastor at First Presbyterian Church in Tallahassee, Florida. Most recently, I completed a four-month temporary pastorate at Government Street Presbyterian Church in Mobile, providing pastoral leadership during the pastor's Lilly Endowment Sabbatical. Throughout ministry, I am sustained by a commitment to innovative Christian education, diverse community engagement, and faithful pastoral presence during times of both celebration and grief. My call continues to unfold as I seek to serve in that spirit nurtured at Balmoral in courage and creativity.

Anne HK Apple Statement of Faith

I believe in one Triune God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. (10.1) YHWH, the God of Israel, whom Jesus called Father. Ancient and New, Alpha and Omega, Beginning and End, First and Last. Sovereign and Provident. In the marvelous light of living and in the darkness and despair of dying, I trust that I belong to God, (4.001) I am precious in God's sight, and God calls God's people into a covenant community. I am called to proclaim the mighty acts of God, to glorify God, and to serve God. In God's own image, I have been mercifully created to live responsibly in God's good creation. Although created in God's image, I am a sinner, daily. (4.005) The roaring lion, Satan, prowls around, seeking me. (3.16) I have been grown in God's grace and covered in forgiveness from the love of God, the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

I have been given this gift that I might live, search, discern, serve, and testify. (9.40) I am called to share God's love in Christ's light through the power of the Spirit. I believe that Jesus Christ was fully human yet fully divine, God with us. I believe that Jesus Christ is my personal Lord and Savior and calls me to be a faithful disciple. Jesus proclaimed the reign of God in his teaching, preaching and healing. Jesus suffered and was crucified for the sinful, turned away nature of humanity. Jesus died and was raised from the dead and ascended into heaven. Jesus promises he will come again and I trust in these mysteries I cannot fully know. In Christ's incarnation, I have inherited a blessing that binds me in community and individually that keeps my tongue from speaking evil and my lips from speaking deceit; stretches my heart to be expansive with loving kindness and encourages life with righteous action - the work of God's justice. I am to live my life to live honorably, with a unity of Spirit, sympathy, love, and hope for all.(5.055)

I believe that God's power is present with us through the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit binds us to Jesus Christ and illuminates our hearts so we hear the Word. Scripture, given by inspiration, is to be the rule of faith and life. (6.002). The Holy Spirit advocates for the least of these and calls us together as Christ's body and equips our sacramental life in Baptism and the Lord's Supper. I believe that the Spirit empowers the church in joyful worship (3.14) as the community of faith working together to continue Christ's work in the world as faithful evangelists; a people set apart by God to witness to the reconciling, good news of Jesus Christ. (9.55) I pray, "Lord, ready me to make my defense to anyone who demands from me an accounting of the hope that is within me." "Lord, make this defense gentle and reverent." "Lord, clothe me with humility under the mighty hand of God." "Lord, make me a witness to Jesus who calls me, not always softly and tenderly, but in risky and venturesome ways." "Lord, help us to recognize, acknowledge and change the places where we are complicit and contribute to the work of evil in the world." (9.43) I understand these prayers are only possible and perfected in Christ and the Spirit. I believe that nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. (11.5) All glory, praise and honor belong to God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit as witnessed in the Bible and in the life and work of the mission of the church. So I believe, so I pray. So I pray, so I believe. Amen and amen.

Brief Biography of Jim Ewing

I was born and raised in Charlotte, NC. My parents were married at Covenant Presbyterian Church where I was baptised and confirmed. Covenant was a spiritually nurturing place where I grew in my faith and understanding of God. I learned scripture and Christian History, which became foundational for my faith later in life. At Covenant, close friendships were fostered that I continue to cherish to this day. It provided a faith community where I could explore and deepen my faith journey.

During college, I learned how to take that relational faith experience and find community with other peers from different theological backgrounds. When I returned to Charlotte after college, I was invited to help with the Youth Program at Covenant and participate in Christian Education programs that once again deepened my relationship with scripture and other members.

It was during that time that the ministers of the church invited me to consider ministry as a vocation. Like most, I was reluctant at first, but they were patient and helped me to see that God uses all sorts of people for God's ministry in the world. So I toured and applied to different Presbyterian seminaries and was led to Union in Richmond. From there God has called me to marriage, fatherhood, and a wonderful vocation as minister of Word & Sacrament. In addition to family, I have had the joy of serving at St. Andrews Presbyterian College, Community Presbyterian Church, and Avondale Presbyterian Church. Each call has brought with it the joy of living life in a faith community that allows me to be nurtured as much as I'm called to nurture. Certainly each place has had challenges which have led to personal growth and development. However, at every milestone, crossroad, and discernment opportunity, I have experienced God's sovereignty and presence. Naturally this fills me, time and time again, with gratitude and praise for our God who shows us divine love through the life and resurrection of Jesus.

Statement of Faith Rev. Jim Ewing

Theology

I believe in God who has created and who is creating. I believe in Jesus Christ, Emmanuel, God with us. I believe that ultimately our hope in life and in death rests in God's loving sovereignty that is shown to us through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. I believe that through the work of the Holy Spirit we can learn about the nature of God's love for creation found in the unique scriptures of the Old and New Testament, and that with the help of the Holy Spirit we learn to follow Jesus by loving God and loving our neighbor. (BOC 11.5)

Scripture

One aspect that I have appreciated about our faith is that it has transpired over thousands of years. One of the connecting threads, for me, has been the unique and holy scriptures that are found in the Bible. It is a powerful thought for me that if I was worshipping in 1025 AD or worshipping 2025 AD, God would be revealed through God's Word which would be shared to those gathered on that day. (BOC 9.27)

Sacraments

In those same ancient words we hear Christ commanding his followers to participate in the Lord's Supper and to Baptise. I have always been taught and have come to appreciate how these Sacraments are for us "holy signs and seals of the covenant of grace." (BOC 6.149) At the table we are given a spiritual food that nurtures us, sustains us, and reminds us of God's love for us. We are claimed by God in the waters of Baptism and that nothing in life or in death will ever separate us from that love of God. (BOC 9.51 - 9.52; 11.5)

Polity

I have always been grateful for the Presbyterian tradition which, from birth, has provided a safe place for me to learn, grow, practice, and serve in the faith. I am grateful that our Presbyterian tradition recognizes the privilege of ministry for all members and not exclusively for clergy. For me, that understanding unifies the church as truly being the body of Christ (BOC 9.4). I am grateful that we do not boast to be the only church, but a part of the greater apostolic church (BOC 1.3). I believe that when people of faith are in relationship with one another, they can truly encourage each other in their faith journeys. As Jesus reminds us, "wherever two or three are gathered together in my name, I am there in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20). With Christ in our midst, we can support and build up the body of Christ together to serve God. (BOC 9.36)

Jess Rigel - Biography

I was raised a child of Pennington Presbyterian Church, a historic, vibrant congregation near the Delaware River in New Jersey. I came to the church through grief; when I was five, my older brother Josh was killed by a drunk driver. Our parents had been church-hopping at the time and were not members of any congregation, but when my brother died the local Presbyterian Church overwhelmed my family with much needed practical support, and thus, I became a Presbyterian. I grew up attending weekly services and participating in youth group, confirmation, and mission trips, but I only became comfortable calling myself a Christian in college. It was there that I realized there were a variety of interpretations of Christian belief, many of which differed vastly from my own. I became a religion major to more deeply explore this reality, yet found myself drawn to other traditions, particularly Buddhism, which prompted me to study for a semester in Northern India. My experiences there forever changed my relationship with God.

In India, I began to study and practice meditation as a form of contemplative prayer, which opened my heart to a deeper awareness of Divine love and peace. I returned to the U.S. with a stronger commitment to Christ than I'd ever had before, which eventually led me to the PC(USA) Young Adult Volunteer program, where I served as a land steward in southern Arizona and as a community gardener in New Orleans, Louisiana. Each of my YAV years significantly impacted the way I interact with God's good creation and the way I understand Jesus, justice, and Christian community.

It was during my time as a YAV in New Orleans that I was encouraged to pursue Seminary, and though I was hesitant, I trusted the movement of the Spirit and was accepted at Princeton Theological Seminary in 2014. Entering with no intention of becoming a pulpit pastor, I was shocked when my studies led me to fall in love with coursework in Hebrew Bible, Practical Theology, and Preaching. Through field education, I was blessed to practice ministry as both a college chaplain and a pastor for young adults, and through CPE I was able to serve in both traditional hospital and behavioral healthcare settings. It was these experiences that guided me to accept my call to parish ministry.

Upon graduating from Seminary, I was ordained and installed as the Discipleship Pastor of Alamance Presbyterian Church, a mid-sized, PC(USA) congregation in Greensboro, North Carolina. At Alamance, in addition to mission work, preaching, teaching and pastoral care, I focused primarily on programming opportunities for children and youth. Through this focus I particularly grew in my understanding of how youth & children process grief, as well as my awareness and response to body image and disordered eating issues. I loved my time at Alamance, and am excited to follow my call to Western North Carolina, where I hope to continue to grow in relationship with Christ and lead others to Christ through serving His people.

Jess Rigel – Statement of Faith

Our God is one – the Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer of all, who remains ever present with creation, refusing to abandon it. (10.1, Belhar) God relishes beauty, and embodies grace, forgiveness, and absolute love, such that, though God has the authority to control everything, God instead empowers humanity and creation with the agency to choose or ignore God of their own volition. Jesus Christ, God's son yet God's self, emerged from Mary's womb fully human while remaining fully Divine. This Jesus loved, laughed, healed, suffered, died, and had the audacity to return from the dead through the power of God to demonstrate His love for humanity. (2.2, Apostles' Creed) I trust in the Holy Spirit, and I live in awe of the way I glimpse the Spirit working through lives, including my own. I believe that the Spirit is not always gentle, but is persistent, committed to enriching lives to find the wholeness, fulfillment, and peace of Christ and to become reflections of God's grace. (9.20, 1967)

I believe in the authority of Scripture, which serves as a witness to God's great love. Scripture reflects the intended relationship between God and the created order, and it revolves around human stories as a means of helping believers understand, grow and persevere in their relationship with the Divine. (6.006, Westminster) Through studying and struggling with these writings, we can become more faithful to living in the ways of Christ, whose commitment to prayer, presence, and service is embodied throughout the Gospels. (9.29, 1967) To be a disciple of Christ is to submit to such spiritual practices with a grateful heart. (9.30, 1967)

I believe that the sacraments manifest the grace of God through their focus on our unity and humility before Christ in worship. In baptism and communion, communities of faith engage Christ's power through dying to their own sin and being resurrected to a relationship with Him rooted in sustenance and fellowship. By practicing these sacraments, believers experience God's healing presence in our daily lives and recommit ourselves to the kingdom vision of the beloved community. (4.073, 4.075, Heidelberg)

I believe that the Church was formed to manifest the grace of God. (8.17, Barmen) As a human institution, this catholic vision fractured, yet has remained a powerful force, often for good, sometimes for ill. (9.34, 1967) I trust in the tenets of the Presbyterian faith as a means of organizing followers of Christ in service and worship, and better understanding the work and witness of the Church in the world. I believe PC(USA) polity strives to create equity, structure, and accountability for the community of Christ it seeks to serve. When grounded in humility and welcome, the Church can offer glimpses of God's kingdom on earth. (9.40, 1967)

Our Triune God redeemed the world and continues to redeem it through abounding grace. (9.15, 1967) When we open our hearts to welcome the Holy Spirit, we are transformed and empowered to walk beside all who suffer. Through grace, we become Christ's hands and feet in the world until He comes again. (10.7, Belhar; 8.16, Barmen)

THE PRESBYTERY OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA
PREPARATION FOR MINISTRY
Kelley Connelly, Chair
January 31, 2026

The Preparation for Ministry Team recommends the following to the Presbytery of Western North Carolina:

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. THAT Susie Burns, an inquirer from Black Mountain Presbyterian Church in Black Mountain, NC, and a student at Union Theological Seminary in Charlotte, North Carolina, be enrolled as a Candidate following the required examination by Presbytery.
2. THAT Mary Taneti, an inquirer from First Presbyterian Church in Gastonia, NC, and a student at Union Theological Seminary in Charlotte, North Carolina, be enrolled as a Candidate following the required examination by Presbytery.

Recently, your Preparation for Ministry Team conducted separate interviews with two Inquirers who asked, with the support of their sponsoring congregation and Session, to be enrolled as a Candidate in the Presbytery of Western North Carolina. We recommend Susie Burns and Mary Taneti to you today for approval.

Susie comes with the support of her congregation and the recommendation of the Session of Black Mountain Presbyterian Church in Black Mountain. Her written call to ministry/faith statement is contained in this packet (PMT Attachment 1).

Mary comes with the support of her congregation and the recommendation of the Session of First Presbyterian Church in Gastonia. Her written call to ministry/faith statement is contained in this packet (PMT Attachment 2).

The Process of Becoming a Candidate and Beginning to Receive a Call

“It is important that those who are to be ordained as teaching elders receive full preparation for their task under the direction of the presbytery. For this purpose, a presbytery shall enter into a covenant relationship with those preparing to become teaching elders and with their sessions and congregations. This relationship shall be divided into the two phases of inquiry and candidacy.” (Book of Order G-2.0601)

Inquiry Phase:

In order to begin the inquiry phase, an applicant must be a member of the sponsoring congregation, shall have been active in the work and worship of that congregation for at least six months, and shall have received the endorsement of their session. This person is then examined by PMT, and if approved, is enrolled as an Inquirer.

“The purpose of the inquiry phase is to provide an opportunity for the church and those who believe themselves called to ordered ministry as teaching elders to explore that call together so that the presbytery can make an informed decision about the inquirer's suitability for ordered ministry." (G2.0603) A person must be an Inquirer for at least one year.

Candidacy Stage:

When an Inquirer believes, through their discernment, that they are called to the position of teaching elder, they can request that they become a Candidate. The Inquirer will meet with their Session and explain their sense of call. The Session can endorse them and recommend them to PMT. The PMT, through its discernment, can decide to recommend them to the Presbytery. At the recommendation of PMT, the Inquirer comes before the Presbytery to share part of their faith journey and their sense of call. The Presbytery can then ask questions in respect to their sense of call, not questions of content of an ordination exam. They can ask about "their Christian faith, forms of Christian service, and motives for seeking the ministry." (Adopted from a previous Book of Order.)

"The purpose of the candidacy phase, then, is to provide for the full preparation of persons to serve the church as teaching elders." (G-2.0604)

Preparation for a Call:

Before a person may take a call in our Presbytery, they must have completed the following:

- Pass the Bible Content Exam.
- Pass the four Senior Ordination Exams (Biblical Exegesis, Theological Competence, Worship and Sacraments, and Church Polity).
- Complete a two-day battery of assessments administered by a Career & Personal Counseling Center.
- Complete one unit of Clinical Pastoral Education training (CPE).
- Normally, complete at least one year at a PCUSA seminary.
- Meet annually with the Preparation for Ministry Team.
- Have been an Inquirer at least one year and have been a Candidate at least one year.
- Take a course in Reformed Theology and Polity.
- Complete Seminary.

Must be Approved by PMT to Receive a Call:

A Candidate may not begin to enter negotiations about a call as a teaching elder without the approval of PMT, which has been delegated this task. When a Candidate has completed the above, the PMT will examine the Candidate and determine if he/she is ready to begin looking for a call, and if so, will "certify the person ready to receive a call." The Candidate will also have their Personal Discernment Profile (PDP) reviewed and approved by PMT. When the person receives a call, the Candidate will be examined by the receiving presbytery.

If a Candidate who is under care of this Presbytery receives a call within our bounds, that Candidate will preach before the Preparation for Ministry Team and their sermon will be included in the Presbytery report.

FOR INFORMATION:

- Levi Bannerman, a member of Black Mountain Presbyterian Church and a candidate under care of the Presbytery of Western North Carolina who received permission to circulate his PDP on 10/30/2024, has accepted a Chaplain position with UVA Health in Charlottesville, VA. His ordination was held on January 10, 2026 in the Presbytery of the James.

Susie Burns
Statement of Call

Dear Members of the Presbytery of Western North Carolina,

I am incredibly grateful to each one of you and the many ways that my faith has been strengthened as I continue the journey to be faithful where God continues to lead. I am deeply aware that we are called to community together and it is in that community that we are shaped and formed by our love first to God and to each other.

Throughout my life I have been blessed to experience deep friendships that continue to nurture me along as I formally pursue my Master of Divinity as I seek God's call on my life. It's been somewhat of a miracle given that I did not graduate College. I graduated one year early from a small rural high school because I was going to work in floral design and marry my childhood sweetheart. Further education was not supported by my family or needed to fulfill these goals, so I got a jump start on feeling more secure by financially supporting myself.

Many religious communities have shaped my ecclesiastical journey. I was baptized and confirmed in my family's Methodist church. I experienced a sense of wonder and safety there and through my grandmother, whose message of love was contrary to wrathful church messages. When my grandmother passed away, so did my sense of safety in the church. I began to feel more alienated than loved and forgiven.

I was married and divorced at an early age and spent most of my young adult life outside of organized religion. I visited many churches that left me feeling vulnerable, excluded and judged because I was an unwed mother with many gay friends. One of my dearest friends had AIDS and feared that God would subject him to a fiery pit of Hell. I wanted to belong to a community that would welcome him too.

Eventually, I married Bob, who became a father to my 12-year-old daughter. The subsequent births of our two boys inspired us to search for a faith community. We landed in a Unity Church because of the solace I had found in their daily devotion, The Daily Word. This was a safe, inclusive, authentic place of healing for both of us.

On February 19, 2001 my life was abruptly interrupted when I found that Bob had died in the early hours of the morning. The following days were filled with the unspeakable. The pastor who was working with Bob to plan our sons' baptism was now working with me to plan Bob's funeral. I was filled with a divine presence that can only be described as God's grace. We decided to incorporate the baptism as a part of Bob's celebration.

I knew that God was present in my life and in the lives of my children. My church community enveloped me as I grieved and healed old church wounds. I volunteered there and eventually become Director of Youth and Families. Though I had not formally studied scripture, I moved forward prayerfully in my intention to serve God. The program grew from a few children and youth to 125 every week. This was built out of the love that comes when a church family stands together in community, they faithfully live into their Baptismal vows. They loved God deeply along with loving each other to live into a life of Christian service. I could sense God's call and the deep abiding love that was growing in my heart. I began to consider the path of theological education.

I asked my architect friend, Wade, to visit my church and advise us about the best use of our small space. As his brief trip progressed, we became aware of our mutual love. A month later, he proposed, and I traveled to his home in Montreat to discuss wedding details. We sat on top of the hill where we built our first home and took in God's beauty, and I knew God was calling me to something more.

Montreat became my home, and I came to understand it as "a thin place," where the veil between heaven and earth is almost nonexistent and people of faith gather to rest, renew, and listen for God's call. This was my first exposure to the PC (U.S.A.). We joined Black Mountain Presbyterian Church, and I connected with others who were also searching, questioning, and seeking out the sacred in everyday life.

As Director of Church Relations for Montreat Conference Center, I had an incredible opportunity to serve and walk with many different congregations across the United States. I would travel to share Montreat's ministry with churches across the country. I experienced throughout those years a deep longing to serve and love people. One of the most profound experiences I had during my time at Montreat as it relates to my call was several years back when I was worshipping at The Church of the Master in Atlanta, GA. I experienced what can only be described as a gentle nudging from the Holy Spirit to explore Theological Education. I had the gift of walking with wonderful Mentors throughout the years since that initial nudging. As I reflect on those moments of the Holy encounters of deep knowing, I am grateful for all the wonderful communities of faith walking with me.

I have always prayerfully sought the guidance of the Holy Spirit as I have moved through my discernment process. It has been one filled with moment of surprise and wonder. As I first started the process of ordination, I would have thought I would be ordained into my role at Montreat, serving many of the congregations across the Denomination. And yet, as I walked through my Supervised Ministry, I knew God was calling me to congregational ministry. I am deeply grateful. I am currently in the final portion of my educational process. This upcoming spring, I will be completing the requirements for CPE along with my final required classes. With God's guidance and support, I will be graduating from Union Presbyterian Seminary in Charlotte in June 2026. I have recently taken a position as the Pastoral Resident for First Presbyterian Church, Hartsville, SC. I look forward to serving the families and children and walking with the congregation as we live faithfully into our Baptismal vows.

My name is Mary Taneti, and I grew up in South India before moving to the USA with my family in 2005. As a child, I imagined God's call would be dramatic—lightning or a booming voice—but it was subtle. There was no defining moment, no grand promise, and no stars to count as with Abraham. Still, the journey into the unknown was quietly shaped by faith and circumstance. My parents were faithful churchgoers, starting at an early age my parents taught me to attend church, study the Word, and pray. My father served in the Indian Navy and was an active elder in his church for several years. He demonstrated fair leadership and dedication to work. My mother taught in school and took me along with her to work. I saw her work patiently and with tremendous love for her work and the children she served. This early exposure laid the groundwork for my lifelong dedication to service and faith.

As the third of five children, I earned a master's in financial accounting and supported rural women in South India by working for a microfinance company. I became active in my own church and volunteered extensively. From my microfinance work, I admired the resilience of the women I served. Their stories fueled my belief in the transformational power of education for Indian women and clarified my calling. When I married James—now a PCUSA minister and seminary professor—my commitment found new avenues. Joining his family of ministers made it natural to support and engage in church work, continuing the journey my parents began. Later, like many Indian women, I left my profession to become a full-time wife and mother, uncertain of the future.

After my career in microfinance ended, my family, James, my two young children, and I immigrated to the USA when my husband entered. In the new country, I cared for them and also sought a greater purpose. I joined a Bible Study Group for seminary spouses and audited classes, which the seminary welcomed. Inspired by this community and conversations with loved ones, I felt called to study Scripture. Encouraged by acceptance and financial aid, I began a new path. I enrolled in the Master of Arts in Christian Education program at Union Seminary in Richmond, VA.

After graduating, I received a call to serve as the Director of Christian Education at First Presbyterian Church in Goldsboro, NC, where I worked for 11 years before moving to Gastonia, NC. It was at my first call where people recognized my gifts for ministry and encouraged me to seek ordination. My love for working in the church kept me busy, and I felt like the path to ordination was long and difficult, and I had no time for it. Years passed, and the yearning and desire to be ordained as a minister of word and sacrament kept burning alive in me. I finally realized that I had spent several years waiting to get started in the ordination process, and that if I wanted to pursue it, I would have to go through the entire MDiv program. The Holy Spirit's nudging was firm and strong, and with much prayer and preparation, I decided to enroll in the MDiv program and pursue ordination.

Doubt and fear were present, but the Spirit's encouragement and a supportive community continually affirmed my calling. These reminders strengthened my confidence to serve the church. For 14 years, I have served as a Christian Educator, and now I feel called to serve as a minister of Word and Sacrament.

Now, instead of waiting for dramatic signs, I pay attention to daily interactions, my participation in church, building relationships, and my learning in a community of faith. Through these experiences, I clearly hear God calling me to serve and care for God's people. God calls ordinary people and in ordinary ways, and each experience confirms my calling.

Philippians 1:3-6

“I thank my God every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, because of your sharing in the Gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the One who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ”

The sixth Partnership Covenant begins on January 1, 2026 and ends on December 31, 2030.

This covenant will be approved by the three Presbyteries at the next meeting of their Presbyteries.

As honorable witnesses those present, who created and wrote this covenant, sign this covenant.

Convenio

Compañerismo de los Presbiterios de Suchitepéquez y Sur Occidente (IENPG) y el Presbiterio del Oeste de Carolina del Norte (PCUSA)

Por qué somos compañeros

Esta compañerismo existe para

Glorificar a Dios (Romanos 15:5-6)

Testificar y demostrar a todos el amor reconciliador de Cristo (Romanos 12:9-21)

Animarnos mutuamente (Romanos 1:12)

Ayudar a nuestros pastores, iglesias y sus miembros a comprender mejor el shalom de Dios y a experimentar la vida abundante de Dios en todos los aspectos de nuestras vidas.

Afirmar nuestra fe integral en Jesucristo, declarando nuestra intención de colaborar en el apoyo y la misión en nuestros respectivos países, aprendiendo unos de otros, compartiendo nuestras alegrías y penas para apreciar los dones que cada iglesia ofrece para el propósito de Dios.

Como Companeros

Trabajaremos juntos en una variedad de ministerios, incluidos (pero no limitados a) educación teológica y secular, salud y compañerismo entre iglesias..

Desarrollaremos cuidadosa y mutuamente planes, procedimientos, proyectos y políticas que apoyen estos ministerios, utilizando nuestros dones individuales con generosidad, justicia, amor y transparencia.

Apoyaremos y animaremos a las personas y a las comunidades a través de nuestras oraciones, las visitas, y la comunicación diligente entre nuestros diversos equipos ministeriales no obstante a diferencias lingüísticas y culturales, para que nuestra fe y amor en Cristo crezca y que otros a nuestro alrededor se vean impactados positivamente.

Todo esto lo podemos lograr como dijo el apóstol Santiago si Dios quiere.
Juntos en Cristo
Together in Christ

Con gratitud a Dios

Filipenses 1:3-6

“Doy gracias a mi Dios cada vez que me acuerdo de ustedes, orando sin cesar con gozo en cada una de mis oraciones por todos ustedes, por su participación en el Evangelio desde el primer día hasta ahora. Estoy seguro de esto: que quien comenzó la buena obra entre ustedes la perfeccionará para el día de Jesucristo.”

El sexto Convenio de Compañerismo comienza el 1 de enero de 2026 y termina el 31 diciembre de 2030.

Este pacto será aprobado por los tres Presbiterios en su próxima reunión.

Como testigos honorables, los presentes, quienes crearon y escribieron este pacto, firman este pacto.

Housing Team

At a December Housing Team meeting, Anne Waple shared updates from the Presbytery disaster response, including housing related work being addressed by volunteers. During PWNC disaster resilience conversations planned for February, long term resilience to encourage safe, secure, affordable housing will be discussed. There is consideration for a PWNC Mission Group participating in the disaster volunteer program.

Several congregations are exploring ways to collaborate locally to identify solutions to meet needs for affordable housing, working with Helene Recovery groups, Habitat, and other grass roots groups. One community identified property adjacent to a church but discovered that location was not suitable for construction and has moved with flexibility to other options.

Identifying options and encouraging neighboring congregations to work together on projects will be a possible discussion topic at the July 2026 Neighborhood Presbytery Meetings.

“All Are Welcome”

Saying what we mean – and meaning what we say!

Topics include:

- elements of inclusive worship services
- congregational auditing
- interpersonal conversations

Presentation will move beyond discussing the physicality of our congregational spaces toward communicating fuller welcome, openness, and inclusion of those living with disabilities.

This is perfect for all Church leaders (ordained & lay), those who “have the ear” of leadership, and those who are passionate about expanding congregational hospitality and welcome.

KEY LEADERS

Karyn Cherry Davenport grew up all around NC as the daughter of a Presbyterian Minister, beginning at Poplar Tent in Concord. In 2019, she graduated with her Master of Marriage and Family Therapy from Abilene Christian University and has been practicing in the Denver, NC area since October 2021. Karyn is passionate about helping youth and their families break down barriers surrounding sexuality and is a seasoned leader for the Presbytery's Faith & Sexuality Retreat. Karyn loves theater - especially musicals, renovating her grandparents old homestead with her husband Jason, and traveling the country.

Rev. Lynn Turnage has been in youth, and children and family ministries for....a long time. Sexuality education and retreats have cycled through her ministries at least every three years. She loves the awe and wonder, energy, intelligence, imagination, and love that children and youth model for the world. Lynn advocates for good communication and healthy connections and community building in all her ministries. Faith & Sexuality Retreat

What to Expect

We understand that talking about sexuality with your middle school aged children can often be an intimidating and scary thought. Letting total strangers talk to your middle school aged children can be even scarier!! Let us put some of those fears to ease.

What should my child and I expect that day?

To be challenged by participating in discussions of what it means to be a Child of God who is created as a sexual being. We open the morning with get to know you activities and an opening session where parents and children are together. We then breakout into a parent session and youth session. Typically, youth are separated with 5th and 6th graders together and 7th and 8th so topics are developmentally appropriate. We provide lunch all together around noon, before entering separate afternoon sessions. At around 3, we come back together for some fun family time where youth will be able to share what they have learned and parents will be able to interact with their youth in a way they have not previously. To finish the day, we have a time for reflection and sending off.

What are you going to teach my child?

We discuss the biological and emotional aspects of sexuality in age-appropriate ways. Using scripture, we identify, reinforce, and discuss how we are each wonderfully and perfectly made in the eyes of God. Children are taught about healthy relationships and provided an environment where talking about sex and their bodies is acceptable and encouraged, as well as how to set and maintain healthy boundaries with partners, friends, and adults.

Why do I have to come with my child?

Talking with your child about sexuality can be very overwhelming and often parents choose not to talk to them at all. During parent sessions, they are taught about ways to talk to their child and normalizing these conversations to make it more comfortable for everyone.

One past parent offered this reflection on the retreat: “The presbytery's middle school sexuality retreat delivered on a major promise: it opened lines of communication about puberty and sexuality and faith with our kids in a way that assumed those topics are (1) GOOD to talk about and (2) rooted FIRST in our created-ness as children of God. We laughed together as families, which made talking about awkward things so much less awkward. An amazing and unexpected fringe benefit was sharing an experience with other parents who helped me feel like I'm on a fun journey rather than entering a dreaded phase. “

Can I bring a younger or older sibling along with us?

Please contact Beth Gunn to discuss the particular needs for your family as topics covered may not be appropriate for younger children or having older youth may not be appropriate with the middle school youth.

Personnel Team Report
Rev. Connie Button, Chair
January 31, 2026

Let us give thanks to God for the dedication, enthusiasm, and faithful service of all our staff to the Presbytery in 2025. The staff includes three full-time and 10 part-time committed people who serve the 89 congregations in 23 counties of western NC. It has been another year of transition as staffing positions have changed through retirements and filling empty positions, while maintaining the mission level that the Presbytery has set.

The Personnel Team is comprised of 6 men and women from around the Presbytery, ruling elders and teaching elders. They met 3 times during the year by Zoom, which allows more people from scattered locations to participate. The responsibilities include care and support of staff, annual reviews, recommending any changes in policies or job descriptions as well as terms of employment, and keeping salaries competitive. Two vacant staff positions have been filled to begin work on January 5, 2026.

During 2025, the Team conducted annual reviews for all permanent staff. Sabbatical Guidelines for ordained full-time Presbytery staff based on the COM recommendation to churches was presented and approved by COM. Salary recommendations for 2026 were also made based on COM recommendations to churches.

The Team learned during reviews with the Presbytery Associates who have assigned churches in specific areas of the Presbytery that the congregations appreciate the connections that are being made and find them helpful. One difficulty the churches in more isolated areas raised is their lack of internet service to fully participate in many Presbytery events, so in person visits and phone calls helped with that. Guatemala Coordinator shared the important connection PWNC has with the churches in Guatemala during the 30th year of ministry together. The Administrative staff was highly commended for their diligence in taking on extra duties due to changes and reduction in staff. During the year the Personnel Chair has served on Nominating/Representation Team, Coordinating Ministry and the Administrative Staffing Task Force.

In the fall, the annual Staff Appreciation Luncheon was held at FPC Morganton. Each staff member was presented with a small gift.

In the fall, the Team also considered new Board of Pensions guidelines for medical benefits as it applies to Presbytery staff. The 2026 Personnel budget request for the Team as well as all staff members was submitted to Finance through Coordinating Ministry for approval. Please be in prayer for all our staff.

The Personnel Team and Coordinating Ministry are recommending the salary packages listed in the attached document.

General Presbyter Report

January 7, 2026

“What’s your relationship status?” Many of us have seen this question before on forms at the Doctor’s office, on a credit application, or as a part of the paperwork in applying for an open position. At first, I used to think this was an odd question to ask. I would often say “What does this question have to do with anything?”, thinking it is none of their business. Over time, my attitude and outlook have changed. Not only is this question informative for legal and medical purposes, I believe the meaning goes deeper. It means people want to know what are your connections. Who takes care of you in the time of trouble? Who can vouch for you? With whom do you share your life? What ways can we as a Presbytery strengthen our relationships and form new ones so people will know that we are connected as a body of Christ?

This year, my theme for the Presbytery of Western North Carolina (PWNC) will be Building and Sustaining Relationships. Called to be the people of God, we do not serve or worship in isolation of the community. I have learned two things about relationships: 1) they can always be strengthened, and 2) they are crucial to our identity and growth. As we move through 2026, I plan to focus my attention to building and sustaining relationship in the following ways:

- 1) Welcoming new members into the Presbytery – I will be working with Rev. Laurey Harrell, who serves on our Commission on Ministry, to develop a way in which new ministers are welcomed into the Presbytery. This will serve to familiarize new ministers to the life and work of the Presbytery, as well as helping them to form and build relationships with our presbyters.
- 2) "What Is a Presbytery and Why Does It Matter?" – I am in the process of developing a presentation with said title for congregations, sessions, and other interested groups to learn about the PWNC and why it matters. These will be in-person presentations given by yours truly. I hope to have more information about this coming soon.
- 3) Presbytery Stewardship Team – the Coordinating Ministry approved the formation of this team late last year. Its purpose will be to reach out to churches that have not contributed financially or participated in presbytery activities, focusing on education about presbytery functions rather than just soliciting funds.

In addition to these, I will continue to visit churches and pastoral leaders – which I really enjoy! I solicit your prayers as we carry out the theme for this year.

We continue to work on building and sustaining relationships in other ways. I hope you have heard by now the news of having our July Presbytery meeting in neighborhoods. Members of the Coordinating Ministry, in partnership with our Presbytery Associates, are working faithfully to make this a reality. The purpose of having these neighborhood Presbytery meetings is to form closer relationships with other churches and become familiar with the work of the PWNC in a local context. I am looking forward to this!

Finally, we have two new staff members. Jim Taylor, retired Commissioned Pastor, is the new Presbytery Associate for the Mayland neighborhood. Jim is very well known to the Presbytery in his service in the PWNC over the years and with the Newdale and Grassy Creek congregations. Katie Quinn is our new Administrative Assistant/Assistant to the Stated Clerk. We are so glad to have both on board. Please welcome them!

I look forward to the Presbytery of Western North Carolina building and sustaining relationships this year. I hope you will, too!

Peace,
