"Grant, O almighty God – for although so many testimonies of your glory are daily before our eyes, we are blind and bury the light under our ingratitude – grant, I say, that we may now at last learn to open our eyes – no, open them for us by your Spirit – that, reckoning the many and great and remarkable benefits in which you show yourself to us and assert the testimony of your eternal divinity – that, reckoning, I say, all this, we may progress in the school of godliness and so learn to ascribe to you all praise for all our faculties, that no praise may remain for ourselves but that we may exalt you alone. And the more you condescend to declare yourself liberal to us, so much the more may we apply ourselves to worship you fervently and devote ourselves entirely to you, leaving no remnant of praise in ourselves but caring only that all the glory may rest with you alone and that it may shine in all the world, through Christ our Lord. Amen."

The Coordinating Council also reports:

4. THAT a list of upcoming events of the Presbytery can be found on the back of the Presbytery Docket.
5. THAT the Council expressed and extended thanks to Black Mountain Presbyterian Church and First Presbyterian Church, Morganton, for the exceptional contributions they make to the Presbytery by hosting Presbytery-wide gatherings at their facilities.

The Coordinating Council of the Presbytery makes the following recommendations:

RECOMMENDATIONS:

6. THAT the following change within the Presbytery of Western North Carolina and the Standing Rules of the Presbytery of Western North Carolina be made to item VI. A. Representation Division (Committee on Representation and Racial/Ethnic Sub-Committee) of the Standing Rules of the Presbytery:(A copy of the current responsibilities of the Committee on Representation and Racial/Ethnic Sub-Committee along with the Book of Order Reference are included with this recommendation. (Appendix J)

Committee on Representation

As described in the Book of Order (G-9.0105.b), the principal function of the Committee on Representation shall be to advise Presbytery with respect to its membership and that of its committees and other units in implementing the principles of participation and inclusiveness, ensuring fair and effective representation in their decision making. In carrying out this charge, the Committee on Representation shall serve as a resource for the Nominating Committee.

Specifically, the committee shall have the following duties:

1. To advocate representation of racial/ethnic members, women, varied age groups including youth, persons with disabilities, as well as persons from small membership churches and all geographical areas for Presbytery.
2. To review the performance of Presbytery in these matters, and report to Presbytery annually on results of the previous year and make recommendations for any needed corrective action.
3. To determine achievable representation and discover potential racial/ethnic nominees for committees and other units in consultation with racial/ethnic constituencies, sessions and the Nominating Committee.
4. To advise the Presbytery on the employment of personnel in accordance with the principles of participation and representation in conformity with a church-wide plan for equal employment opportunity (G-13.0201.b and G-4.0403).
5. To assist and monitor the related working groups (or task forces), e.g. Presbytery-level Women of Color and the African-American Advisory Group.
6. To encourage racial/ethnic congregations in their mission, heritage preservation and ministry.
7. To promote appreciation and understanding of the uniqueness of individuals and groups with different gifts and cultural backgrounds.

The membership of this committee is specified in the Book of Order (G-9.0105.a). Exceptions to these requirements shall be allowed by the Presbytery only if it is unable to secure the participation or representation of the necessary persons. This fact shall be made a part of the official record of the Presbytery. The committee's membership shall, whenever possible, consist of twelve persons, including African-Americans, Native Americans, Hispanic Americans, Asian Americans and European Americans.

The item "Racial/Ethnic Sub-Committee" shall be deleted in its entirety.

- 7. THAT Partnership Agreements between Presbytery of Suchitepequez and Presbytery of Sur Occidente in Guatemala be extended through 2014.

Following the Coordinating Council's report, Elder Bill Kantonen requested time to speak to the Presbytery, being this as his last meeting as chair of Council. He stated that during the past six years, he has spent valuable time within and with the Presbytery and that he is very appreciative of the time. During this time, he shared that the Presbytery staff has been of great value to him and that he has been very appreciative of their assistance. He encouraged all commissioners that if approached to serve on a committee of Presbytery, to serve, that they will find it to be a rewarding experience.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL PRESBYTER

The Rev. Bobbi White, General Presbyter, expressed that one of the joys of her job is being able to travel throughout the Presbytery and being able to be in the various churches. She is excited about being able to participate in the installation of new pastors, the activities of the Mayland Fellowship, and participate in worship services. These are some of the items that she is able to experience through various traveling throughout the Presbytery. (Appendix K ) She encouraged everyone to stay alert and watch for information coming regarding Marvelous March in the Presbytery. The month will be filled with various events beginning March 6 when John Bell will be in Hickory. She invited musicians from the Presbytery to attend. Then, on March 13, the second session of the Acts Initiative will be held at Mt. Home Baptist Church. Following the Acts Initiative, the Christian Education Committee will hold their annual one-day retreat on March 20 with Frances Taylor Gench being the retreat leader.

YOUTH MINISTRIES

On behalf of the Youth Committee, Beth Gunn, Associate Presbyter for Youth, reported on the Youth Events for 2009, and upcoming dates and events for the youth in 2010, encouraging all commissioners to refer to the Presbytery website for youth updates and events. Beth continued her report by recognizing the 18 youth that will make up the Presbyterian Youth Council for 2010.

Ginny Soll, Educator at Black Mountain Presbyterian Church, spoke to the commissioners about the Triennium 2010. (July 19-24) Encourage everyone to pick up information and encourage youth to attend this event. The youth will be greatly enriched from the experience.

Troy Braswell, Pastor at Long Creek Presbyterian Church, emphasized the need for youth to attend Triennium and the experiences that a person will come away with. He encouraged the churches to budget for the Triennium and stressed that our youth are the future of our Presbytery.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

- Edwin R. Brenegar, III, Facilitator/Consultant/Speaker, Community of Leadership, Inc., through October 23, 2010.

The motion passed.

COMMITTEE ON MINISTRY INTRODUCTION OF NEW MEMBERS

On behalf of the Committee on Ministry, the Rev. Deborah McEachran, member of the Examinations Committee, introduced the following new ministers in the Presbytery. Each spoke briefly and signed the Book of Obligations. Their statements of faith and biographical statements were included in the report of the Committee on Ministry. (Appendix M)

- Shannon J. Kershner (Black Mountain Presbyterian Church)
- Gene T. Price (Honorably Retired)
- Russell D. Tillotson, Sr. (Honorably Retired)

REPORT OF THE TREASURER AND BUDGET & FINANCE COMMITTEE

Elder Charles Sellers, chair of the Budget and Finance Committee and Elder Jack Suddreth, Treasurer, presented a summary of the Operating Budget as of September 30, 2009. (Appendix N)

The Budget & Finance Committee has reviewed the committee expenditures and has been in contact with the various committee chairs and encouraged the committees to curtail their budgets. First Presbyterian Church in Waynesville and First Presbyterian Church in Highlands were commended for their additional giving with the budget constraints.

Jack Suddreth and Charles Sellers commended the Presbytery Staff for their support of the Presbytery and their work.

STEWARDSHIP

General Presbyter, Bobbi White, gave a presentation on the work of the Presbytery and how the Presbytery is supporting the churches within the Presbytery. She shared the many ways in which your money is at work through Jesus and that the Presbytery is giving 50% to benevolence.

PRESBYTERIAN HOME FOR CHILDREN

On behalf of the Presbyterian Home for Children, Sarah Thomas expressed sincere thanks to the Presbytery for their continued support, gifts and prayers and asked the Presbytery to continue to pray for the children and the home. The Presbyterian Home for Children is now participating in the foster care program, enabling them to provide support and transitional living from ages birth through college graduation.

GRANDFATHER HOME FOR CHILDREN

On behalf of Grandfather Home for Children, Mae Weed brought greetings from the home and gave a brief history of the home and their needs. Grandfather Home for Children is currently serving approximately 250 children throughout their facilities in North Carolina.

CAMPUS MISSION

Mae Weed, chair of Campus Mission Committee, reported on the work of that committee and distributed information regarding campus ministry at the various schools in our Presbytery. (Appendix O)

REPORT FROM SYNOD COMMISSIONERS

Dr. James Aydelotte, representing the Presbytery of Western North Carolina, reported from the Synod of the Mid-Atlantic Assembly. The Synod of the Mid-Atlantic is composed of 14 Presbyteries. The Synod invited Dr. Aydelotte to report on the work of the Presbytery of Western North Carolina. Dr. Aydelotte extended a thanks of appreciation to the Synod, on behalf of the Presbytery, for grant funds received. Elder Larry Poe and the Rev. Becky Stanley are our Synod Commissioners. The next moderator of the Synod is recommended to come from our Presbytery.

GOOD NEWS FROM CHURCHES

With appreciation the Presbytery heard reports from the following:

- Eddie Deas, Third Street Presbyterian Church
- Patrick Perryman, First Presbyterian Church, Gastonia
- Joseph Washburn, Banner Elk Presbyterian Church

LECTIO DEVINA

Rev. Lynn Michie, chair of the Peace and Justice Committee, led the Presbytery through a period of spiritual reading. Lectio Devina is a method of prayer and scriptural reading to promote communion with God and spiritual insights.

PRAYERS BEFORE DINNER

The General Presbyter recessed the Presbytery for dinner with prayer at 4:20 p.m.

Following dinner, Blue Grass Music was provided by a group of musicians in the Presbytery, prior to reconvening at 7:00 p.m. with song and prayer.

HUNGER COMMITTEE

Elder Cindy Moore, member of the Hunger Committee, and the Rev. Franklin Jones, pastor at Brittain/Union Mills began their presentation with a skit promoting “Whose Birthday is it Anyway?” Cindy then reported on the work of the committee for the year and the Reclaiming Christmas opportunities, and how each congregation can actively participate.

GUATEMALA PARTNERSHIP

The Rev. Randall Boggs, chair of the Guatemala Partnership Task Force, shared that it was 17 years ago that the Presbytery of Western North decided to share lives with companion brothers and sisters in Guatemala. He briefed the Presbytery of the work and priorities of the Partnership.

Elder Edwin Gelista, Presbytery of Suchitepequez, and Elder Cesar Taracena, Presbytery of Sur Occidente, addressed the Presbytery and communicated thanks to each one for the Partnership between our Presbytery and their Presbyteries, and of the benefits of the scholarship programs. Elder Barbara Hosbein, Banner Elk Presbyterian Church, served as translator.

Doug Michael, chair of the Health Ministries Task Force with the Guatemala Partnership, shared that their work had been largely through promoting the educational health needs and health concerns. The greatest priority is to integrate our health ministry to have more opportunities to improve the health of the people.

Surrounded by pastors and members of Presbytery's churches with sister churches in Guatemala, General Presbyter, Bobbi White, Chair of the Guatemala Partnership Committee, Randall Boggs, Elder Cesar Taracena of Presbytery of Sur Occidente and Elder Edwin Gelista of Presbytery of Suchitepequez signed a new, five-year covenant with the Presbyteries of Suchitepequez and Sur Occidente.

Members of the delegation of church partners going to Guatemala in November 2009 were commissioned.

GREETINGS FROM GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Presbytery adjourned for the evening at 8:50 p.m.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2009

WELCOME

The eighty-second meeting of the Presbytery of Western North Carolina was reconvened on Saturday, October 24, 2009 at 9:01 a.m. with song and prayer by the Moderator.

MISSION

Allen Huff, chair of the Mission Committee, reported on the work of the committee and presented the mission update by showing “Partner with Presbyterian World Mission.”

LIVING WATERS FOR THE WORLD

Tim Exley shared the mission of Living Waters for the World with the Presbytery of Western North Carolina and how various groups and congregations could participate. Living Waters for the World is a mission resource that trains and equips mission teams to share the gift of clean water with communities in need. Their water treatment systems and related educational programs fill a critical need in the world water crisis and communities with available, but contaminated water.

HEALTH CARE

Dr. Olson Huff, a nationally known pediatric doctor and elder at the Montreat Presbyterian Church who has worked with congressional leaders in both the Senate and House to effect the Health Reform legislation, spoke to the Presbytery to help everyone have a better understanding of the issues surrounding health care.

CLOSING WORSHIP

Pastors Bobbi White, General Presbyter; Grace Boyer, Associate Presbyter; Dr. Billy T. Lowe, Cherryville First; Maggie Lauterer, Burnsville, First; Jerry Bron, Southminster; and Daria Ragan, Belmont First, led the Presbytery in a Wholeness and Healing closing worship, with scripture taken from Mark 10:46-52.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

On behalf of the Resolution of Thanks Committee, the Rev. Dr. Billy T. Lowe shared the following Resolution of Thanks.

WHEREAS, the 82nd Stated Meeting of the Presbytery of Western North Carolina, through the Providence of Almighty God, met October 23-24, 2009 at Lake Junaluska Conference Center at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina.

WE give thanks for the beauty of this earth, as evidenced once again through the Autumn days of color and crispness;

WE give thanks for the able leadership by our Moderator, Rev. Dr. Luke Harkey;

WE give thanks for the true Spirit of the Church as experienced by:

- the dedication of Presbytery Committees and their leaders whose work it is to Glorify God in both mundane and mighty services;
- the Church Companionship of Sur Occidente and Suchitepequez and Western North Carolina;
- the uplifting Bible Study and soul-feeding music and blessed worship experiences;
- the renewal of old friendships and the beginnings of new ones;
- the witness, co-operation and unity of the members;
- the many opportunities taken to share the Love of Christ;
- the commitment of our General Presbyter, the Reverend Bobbi White and the Presbytery Staff, to assist us on this journey;

THEREFORE, we resolve to “Love the Lord our God with mind, heart, soul and strength and our neighbor as ourselves.” To the Glory of God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

BENEDICTION AND ADJOURNMENT

With the business of the Eighty-Second Stated Meeting of the Presbytery of Western North Carolina completed and adjournment voted, the Moderator concluded our meeting with prayer at 11:15 a.m.

NEXT MEETING

The Eighty-Third Stated Meeting of the Presbytery of Western North Carolina will be held on Saturday, January 30, 2010 at the Waldensian Presbyterian Church in Valdese, North Carolina.

These minutes were prepared by the following:

Luke Harkey, Moderator

---

William A. "Bert" Sigmon, Stated Clerk

---

Robbin Buchanan, Assistant Stated Clerk

- These minutes are to be approved by Presbytery on January 30, 2010, at its meeting at the Waldensian Presbyterian Church in Valdese, North Carolina.
