GOOD NEWS FROM THE CHURCHES

The Presbytery heard, with appreciation, a report from the following:

- Rev. Mark Watson, First Presbyterian Church, Newton, NC
- Rev. Ed Forsyth, New Hope Presbyterian Church, Gastonia, NC

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

The Reverend Robert Bruce Cumming and Elder Lynn Moore submitted the following Resolution of Thanks:

WHEREAS the Presbytery of Western North Carolina has completed its business for the 87th stated meeting with the word faithfully proclaimed and sacraments rightly administered – scripture read and preached, bread broken and cup shared, and baptism remembered in those servants whose baptism is now complete in their death;

WHEREAS new leadership has been recognized, and ongoing leadership confirmed, in council, staff, and the work of COM and CPM;

WHEREAS presbytery has demonstrated its trust and stewardship of financial resources given by God, the giver of all;

WHEREAS presbytery has celebrated mission outreach on college campuses, poverty-ridden villages in “faraway” countries who are our neighbors, places where hunger threatens God’s children, places where young people gather and are cared about -- and the many places where the people can speak out, confident that God’s people will hear their joys and concerns; and presbytery still has time to hear good news from local churches close to home;

WHEREAS the Presbytery of Western North Carolina has dealt with difficult issues of theology and polity, in its discussion of amendments to the constitution of the PC(USA), and has done so not with a spirit of division or violence, but “armed” by trust in the Lord Jesus Christ, faith in Scripture as the unique and reliable witness to Christ, and by reliance on our confessions and our form of government as the way to do things “decently and in order;”

WHEREAS presbytery and hosting churches have proved that IT IS POSSIBLE to meet in winter -- as demonstrated last year by the Waldensian church on Jan. 30; and Feb. 6; and Feb. 19 -- and as demonstrated by the willingness of the Grace Covenant Church, may their turn come again soon to host! -- and as shown today by the staff and people of First Morganton in their gracious hospitality and service;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Presbytery of Western North Carolina adjourn with thanks to Almighty God, creator, redeemer, sustainer in all that we are, until our next meeting -- in spring, a time of more pleasant weather, yet also the season we commemorate the passion and death of Christ before his rising .

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit we MOVE it!
