Administrative Commission First Presbyterian Church of Marion, NC July 26, 2011

On January 2, 2010, the congregation of First Presbyterian Church of Marion voted to change their Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws to bring them into compliance with the Constitution of the PCUSA. As of April 1, 2011, all necessary documents had been submitted to the North Carolina Secretary of State for approval. Since that date, there have been additional conversations with the office of the Secretary of State and with the Presbytery's attorney to make sure all documents are in order. I am pleased to report that final approval by the State of North Carolina has now been granted, and the Administrative Commission requests to be dismissed at the July 26, 2011 meeting of the Presbytery of Western North Carolina.

Again, we wish to express our sincere thanks to the Marion Session for all their hard work and to their interim pastor, the Rev. Dr. Dan Thornton, for his outstanding service to the congregation. We continue to be most encouraged by the ministry of Marion's new pastor, the Rev. Mr. Jeff Coffey, and will continue to pray for God's blessing upon this wonderful congregation in the days ahead.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald G. Scofield Jr.
Chair, Administrative Commission

Administrative Commission Report

Iglesia Emanuel July 26, 2011

The Administrative Commission met on Sunday, June 5, 2011 at Iglesia Emanuel. We welcomed Dorrie Harty who is the new representative from First, Hickory.

We began with a celebrate in signing a new six month contract with Gary VanBrocklin to continue as Stated Supply. This has been a very healthy and healing relationship for the members of this congregation. We appreciate Gary and his wife Marlene and their work with this church.

Attendance remains around twenty-five each Sunday afternoon, and they have a Wednesday Bible Study.

The new air-conditioning unit was installed, and we gave thanks to Randy Hardy for his work in this area.

Although right now is a stable place, we realize that we have to look ahead.

- Gary VanBrocklin is not permanent, and we have had a great struggle to find appropriate leadership for this congregation. The finances are not available for a full time position.
- As we discovered with the air conditioner, the building (which is owned by the Presbytery) has much deferred maintenance. We have asked that a survey be done of the possible needs in this building.
- There is a continuing concern about the ministry with children and youth.

Gary VanBrocklin has started a dialogue within the leadership at Emanuel about creating a “mosaic” congregation with a local Presbyterian congregation. Although this is not embraced yet by the congregation, a dialogue has begun.

Dr. Frank Aichinger
Chair, Administrative Commission for Iglesia Emanuel, Hickory.

Administrative Commission Report

New Vision Church
Conover, North Carolina
July 26, 2011

Revised: July 9, 2011

We have begun the prayer that God sends us a “new family every week.” In the last three months, there is only one Sunday we have not had at least one new family in our worship. We also work on keeping the guests coming back. Worship attendance is going up: on Easter we had 92 (highest since launch) and one Sunday in April there were 72 – and a new high in Children’s Church with fifteen.

We celebrate the ministry that continues to happen here:

- Two new families have covenanted with New Vision, and we had a baptism on Easter Sunday; and we have other new families who are coming in.
- The Pack-a-Bag ministry continues to feed 80 students each weekend. We received a Nickel a Meal grant to help some of the short fall this year. We have partnered with DSS and ECCCM to be more effective in our purchasing.
- There is a new group for TWEENS (5-8 grades) that meets every week for study as well as for special events.
- The summer we started a Wednesday night “Half Time” program with dinner and a dialogue study. This will evolve into the LifeTree Café in August.
- Two members attended the Presbyterian Pilgrimage.
- We are partners with the Hickory Habitat Presbyterian House.

We continue to seek ways to reach out to the de-churched and un-churched in our community. In May, the Pastors went to training from LifeTree Café at the Group headquarters in Colorado. This ministry fits much of the vision we had coming here, to create an open place for dialogue. They provide all the resources and the tested presentations. We want to invite other local congregations to join us in this ministry, and plan to launch it in August.

We continue to wrestle with the interconnected issues of growth and finances. We have sought all different ways to reach out to the community, some successful, some not so much. At this point, we find the most effective is personal invitation by those a part of the community, and God just sending people who “drive by.”

We feel that most of the people are giving faithfully. However the financial expectations from the mortgage on the building are beyond what we receive. We are grateful to the PWNC for continuing their support. We continue to seek creative ways to better use this facility.

We mourn the loss of our friend and chair, Mark Watson, who is leaving the area. Greg Smith has agreed to be nominated to fill this position. We are actively recruiting some additional members.

ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION West Asheville Presbyterian Church July 26, 2011

The West Asheville Commission has continued to work in partnership with the Session. We have worked together to secure The Rev. Kent Smith who began on July 1, 2011 as Stated Supply and moderator of the Session. The continuing issues continue to be the financial stability of the church, which is stable enough to continue operating at this point. The other pressing issue is the inability of the Nominating Committee of the church to identify any members of the congregation who feel called to active service as an elder on Session. This will be a prime task of the next six months and the commission, Session, and pastor will evaluate the progress toward a renewed Session in October, prior to their annual meeting in January.

STATED CLERK ATTACHMENT 6

Report-Special Commission Cullowhee Presbyterian Church July 26, 2011

The special Commission assigned to the Cullowhee Presbyterian Church had their first meeting with the Session on May 17, 2011 in Cullowhee. Commission members present were Terry Hanna, Chair, Susan Denne, COM Liaison, Ed Brenegar and Judy Covin. Commission members absent were Anne Morgan and Dick Graham. Session members present were Marcia Woosley, Clerk, Marian Beagle, Royce Woosley, and Linda McNeely.

After introductions, devotion and prayer, Terry Hanna explained the Commission's role as a support to the Session as they look for God's direction for the Cullowhee Church and seek a Designated Pastor.

Ed Brenegar then led the session through a discussion concerning past, present, future, explaining what was needed to move forward.

The group looked at the revised CIF and a number of changes were suggested. They then planned to meet on June 21st to discuss PIF's received and candidates for a Designated Pastor position.

The Commission met again on June 21st in Cullowhee. All Commission members and Session members were present. After devotion and prayer and some discussion on the loss of members in the congregation, the group focused on looking at the PIF of possible candidates for a Designated Pastor position. The development of a campus ministry being a major goal.

Ed Brenegar went over possible interview questions and the group determined how they would proceed in approaching candidates. The group adjourned until the next meeting scheduled for July 11, 2011.
