Montreat Travel Information

Montreat is located in a 4,000-acre cove of the Blue Ridge Mountains, where relatively mild weather allows visitors to enjoy the conference center year-round. Montreat is just outside of Asheville, North Carolina, which features direct flights from Houston, New York, Detroit, Chicago, Atlanta, and Orlando, among others. Asheville Regional Airport is 30 minutes away. To pre-arrange ground transportation, call (828) 209-3660 or visit FlyAVL.com and click "Passenger Services."

Montreat is centrally located for many Presbyterians in the southeast. There are roughly half a million Presbyterians within six hours driving time of Western North Carolina.

Montreat is conveniently located just minutes from Interstate 40. If you're driving, take exit 64 to Black Mountain/Montreat and turn north on NC Highway 9 through downtown Black Mountain. Continue through three traffic lights and drive approximately two miles on Montreat Road to arrive at the stone gate marking the entrance to the town of Montreat.
