

Shop to Change Children's Lives

April 28, 2015

Jeremiah 29:11~ "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord. "Plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Ten Thousand Villages will donate a portion of sales on Tuesday, April 28, to support Black Mountain Home for Children, Youth & Families. The Home has been serving the abused, abandoned, and neglected children of WNC since 1904.

Glorifying God by caring for children and families

It's: Hope

It's: Healing

It's: Home

It's: Here

Last April, Barium Springs and Grandfather Home for Children merged, forming one of the largest child service providers in North Carolina. On Monday, March 30, the agencies will begin operating as one cohesive organization under the name Children's Hope Alliance.

Both historical campuses will keep their names

The campus in Barium Springs will be known as the Barium Springs Campus of Children's Hope Alliance, while the campus in Banner Elk will be known as The Grandfather Home Campus of Children's Hope Alliance.

The new name reflects the mission of our organization

To provide a safe, healing journey for hurting children and families - creating hope now and in the future.

The logo is an ode to our past, while highlighting our future

The logo represents a pinwheel, which is the official symbol of child abuse prevention, the alternating colors create an orange cross, which alludes to roots of the organization having come from the Presbyterian church, and a reminder of the importance of faith in the healing process.

The colors mean something

The colors were deliberately chosen to reflect the mission of Children's Hope Alliance. Orange encourages warmth and happiness as well as aiding the recovery of grief, and teal creates emotional balance, alleviates feelings of loneliness and opens the door for spiritual growth.

Please contact us for more information about how you can support our combined mission, or if you would like for one of us to come present for your congregation or small group.
